

Americans worry about getting hacked on social media

The concern is growing

76%

are more concerned compared to past years

70% of Americans are concerned about being hacked

- are very concerned
- are somewhat concerned
- are not concerned
- are not on social media

What platforms are people most concerned about when it comes to being hacked?

9 in 10 people know someone who has been hacked

- 89% know someone whose social media account was hacked
- 47% know up to 5 people
- 27% know up to 10 people
- 15% know more than 10 people

Nearly 2 in 5 have been hacked

37% of Americans have had their social media profiles hacked. Of the 37%...

Trust in social media apps could be higher

Facebook scored highest on the trust front — however, not even half of Americans chose it as their most trusted app.

Which app do people trust the most with their privacy and data?

Want to learn more? Read the full article this infographic is based on here.